ROTHSCHILD'S COATS FOR WOMEN

Tailored by Hart Schaffner & Marx

You'll enjoy sharp winter weather in a smartly fashioned Ciro coat. Icy winds don't cut through its soft, deeply woven woolens or its rich, guarding turs. Colorings give warmth, too; subdued ember and firelight tones in the dress coats, racier shades in the sport coats.

EXPECT HOUSE VOTE ON INCOME TAX BILL BEFORE CHRISTMAS

Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—(Special.)—Non-partisan consideration of the tax bill on the floor of the house under a special rule restricting the offering of amendments is the program of Republican leaders. It is planned to commence debate about Monday, Dec. 14, one week following the convening of congress, and to bring the convening of congress, and to bring the measure to a final vote not later-than Wednesday, Dec. 23.

Discussing the probable program Representative Tilson [Rep., Conn.]. the majority leader, said today that if the bill is reported from the ways and means committee as a non-partisan measure he will arrange for an agree-ment among the ranking members of make ready to carry into the the two parties over procedure on the

If Democratic leaders are in virtual agreement with the Republicans as to the terms of the bill, Mr. Tilson said he assumed that they would join in providing a special rule which will remme of another candidate. The strict the offering of amendments designed to tear the committee measure one by law if the board attempts to to pieces.

though he deplored the "repeated indo as the board wants him to," timations that Chicago school affairs "On the are disgraced by perpetual fighting," he made it clear that he had no alternative but the law if they chose to continue the contest.

Wouldn't Urge Another to Take It. The letter added:

"Intimations of Mr. Campbell's rejection have led some whose knowledge of the temper of school people here is worthy of respect to say that ne one who in the circumstances would accept nomination to his place would be fit to occupy it. I do not regard the offer of the position under these conditions as a compliment and am unwilling to try to persuade any one to take it."

Ask your husband to vote on tonight's dessert

OST men tell us that they do not have pie at home as often as they would like to have it. And they hesitate to ask for it-because they know the work it means, assembling the materials, making the crusts, working around a hot oven, and cleaning the pans and bowls.

But try this experiment. Turn to your husband now and ask him if he would like to have a rich, fresh pumpkin pie tonight. Or suggest fresh apple, or cherry, mince, butterscotch, raisin, blueberry, peach, grape, pineapple, cocoanut cream, custard, banana cream, lemon cream, chocolate cream.

Read the whole list to him. See his face light up; see his eyes sparkle in anticipation.

Much easier than you think

"Now I'm in for it," you think. Not a bit! Last night, or during the wee small hours of this morning, a company of master bakers of the choicest fresh fruits, of custards and creams and seasonings which cannot be duplicated in any kitchen in the land

Serve a Case & Martin Tea Room Pie to your family tonight-and you'll have one often. We're sure of it-because we know that no one can use better ingredients, no one can bake a pie under more exacting conditions of cleanliness.

And easy to buy, too

Your grocer or delicatessen has these freshbaked Tea Room Pies. We suggest that you order early, as the dealer buys only the number he expects to sell during the day, and you are likely to be disappointed if you wait.

Many housewives place a standing order for Tea Room Pies - one kind early in the week, another later, and so on.

It's always a good plan, when you know you will want a certain kind of pie for a special occasion, to order a day or two in ad-Martin Tea Room Pie. A new delight awaits you. Order one today - SURE.

ACHES AND PAINS ARE SOON FIXED UP

Simple, easy treatment brings quick relief

A soldier in the Sixth Pennsylvania Infantry writes from camp:

"Sloan's is a great thing for us boys in the army. After a stiff hike or drill your muscles are bound to ache, but they are soon fixed up with Sloan's. It's great stuff for muscle-bound legs, lame backs, sprains or bruises."

The reason that Sloan's Liniment gives such remarkable relief is that it gets right at the cause of the pain. It stimulates the circulation where the pain is, and clears out congestion. clears out congestion.

Right away you feel relief. Stiff muscles limber up, the aching stops, and soon you are fit as ever. No need to rub. Sloan's does the whole job. Just pat it on! Get a bottle. All druggists—35 cents.

VALUE OF THE

IOWA

Corn Crop for 1925

Largest in state's history—both in bushels and in dollars. Adding value of other crops brings total up to about two billion dollars!

---that's equal to about $100 apiece tor every man, woman and child in Chicago!

SOME people may have been misled by recent statements that Iowa corn was selling for fifty cents a bushel. That is positively untrue. On the very day such statements were made, Iowa corn was selling at the country elevators for sixty-three cents a bushel! This means that the Iowa 1925 corn crop of 477,386,000 bushels is worth to the farmers themselves $300,753.000!

And that is a very conservative estimate. For a large part of Iowa's corn is fed to hogs, where it brings a much higher price. In other words, the real value of Iowa's 1925 corn crop is actually far in excess of the figure quoted above.

Two Billion Total!

If to this we add the value of Iowa's other crops, and the value of its live stock, poultry, dairy products, industry and coal, the state can show a new wealth of almost two billion

If this isn't prosperity—and plenty of it—then we don't know what prosperity is!

The fact of the matter is that today—right now lowa offers one of the most profitable and responsive markets in the entire country.

Even before the addition of this two billion dollars of new wealth, lowa had an average wealth of $17,000 for every family in the state.

What Iowa Is Worth

And did you know that Iowa has a smaller percentage of illiteracy than any other state?'

Did you know that it is first in the number of automobiles on farms?' Did you know that the value of its corn, oats, horses, hogs. poultry and eggs tops all other states?

The farms of Iowa are worth more than all the farms of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Jersey Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia, South Carolina, Florida, Alabama, Arizona, Utah, Nevada, New Mexico and Wyoming combined.

You don't ordinarily think of wool when you hear lowa's name mentioned. Yet its wool is worth more than California figs.

And Iowa has an annual apple crop much bigger than most people realize. This is worth more than the apple crop of any of the Pacific or Mountain

Real Figures on Corn

Coming back to corn once more, just run your eye over these figures—figures which prove again the supremacy of Iowa as a prosperous market.

Value of Iowa corn crop for 1925. ($300,753,180) is . . .

Fifty per cent greater than the Kansas wheat crop for 1924 ($196,784,000).

Five times as great as combined California and Florida orange crops for 1924 ($64,290,000).

Two and one-half times as great as the value of all the milch cows in Wisconsin in 1924 ($180,306,599).

ton crop for 1924 ($112,000,000).

Eleven times as great as the potato crop of New cause no figures for 1925 are available.

Two and one-half times as great as the Georgia cot-

York for 1924 ($26,573,000).

Note: 1924 figures are given in the comparisons be-

One of the great agricultural states of the country, Iowa is also an important industrial state. Because of the first fact, the second is often overlooked. One-half of all America's washing machines are manufactured in Iowa. It has the largest plants in the production of each of the following: Baskets, buttons, crackers and macaroni, butter, cereals, calendars, steel furnaces, stump pullers, wall plaster, brick and tile, motor tractors and washing Prosperity? Iowa has its full share of it—two billion dollars more wealth than in 1924.

Alert manufacturers of quality products are going to give their net profits, for the balance of 1925, and for the years ahead, a big boost by selling in this

In preparing their plans for advertising in this market they will make special note of the fact that every Iowa family takes a daily newspaper. (557,000 families in Iowa—Daily newspapers have 580,272 subscribers.)

This means that the quickest, most effective, and most economical way to reach the 557,000 prosperous, intelligent families in this state is to advertise in the daily Iowa newspapers.

HOW THE IOWA MERCHANDISING PLAN Will Help Sell Your Product

The following definite help in marketing your products is available in the 31 leading cities and towns of Iowa—guaranteed to every advertiser using 5,000 lines or more of space by the Iowa Daily Press Association. Such state-wide cooperation is available in no other part of the country, to the best of our knowledge.

Individual papers will:

- 1. Make a study of local market and trade territory.
- Supply complete and accurate list of retail grocers, retail druggists and other lines of business in the newspaper's home city and surrounding territory.
- 3. Introduce the advertiser's salesman to a number of the big retailers. Advise advertiser as to relative sales standing of competing products.
- 4. Urge retailers to feature displays of nationally advertised products in their windows. Furnish the advertiser with names of stores that will make use of window displays.
- 5. Make market investigation for prospective advertisers. (Identity to be made known first.)
- Urge local retailers to mention advertiser's products in their own advertisements, thus tying up with the company's.
- 7. Send, on receipt of contract, a multigraphed letter to list of retailers in the territory, telling of the campaign.

For further information about the lowa merchandising plan, write to us direct. Your request will receive prompt and courteous attention.

The girl is beautiful and possesses the only shred of respectability the band can lay claim to. She is in reality an orphan whom Mimi has befriended. One of the crocks. Beauty Bill Gibbons, asks Doris to marry him. She refuses. A few days later, linews his wife is alive, and demands fifty thousand pounds for silence. Sir Adrian does not believe her, but agrees to pay the money. She resums to London immediately, and decides to make an investigation. His wife's former maid, Anna Ferguson, failed to come calls on her sister. Madam Georgetic, a fashionable London dressmaker, who is unable to five him any information. Doris rebels at the life she is forced to lead with Mimi and Bade Charley, and takes a job as manikin at Madam Georgetic's.

was out to kill, and Doris knew it. There was cold laughter in eyes; a set smile on the folded lips. Perhaps Mimi, though anxious, ather hoped Charles would delay his overdue home coming just a little anger. By this time either something had happened to him, or it had not.

"Why did you come?" Doris asked. "Why shouldn't I? Georgette sent me a card."

"You must have written for it," said Doris.

"O, indeed! And if I did, why not? . . . I wanted to see how you wer ing on. Perhaps you think that's odd-unnatural."

"I don't know what to think!" Doris cried. "Can't you be kind, Mimi? Can't you-just let me alone? You've always been so kind to me before, and I've never done you any harm, have I? It isn't as though I'd been beastly or anything like that. It's only right that I should try to earn my living. You and Uncle Charley-"

"I wasn't. Except that I love him dearly—"
"O, do you!" And then Mimi's fierce resentful anger took control of her, and she burst into a torrent of recrimination that hurt and staggere

Her violence even susprised Mimi herself. It was a throw-back to earlie manners, buried, she had believed, by years of careful training in gentility. But she raved on, using wild and coarse language. She reviled Doris as 3 charity brat, hurled her nameless parentage at her, taunted her with cowardice and sheer ingratitude, and accused her savagely of turning traitor-a spy. "That's all you are; nothing better than a copper's nark," she scream

Doris was horrified at the vulgar, passionate outburst. And, in time, she lost her temper and retaliated vigorously,

But the scene died down of its own flerce anger.

Mimi. I'll go—just as soon as I can."

Charley returned, more than a little worried, for things were going wrong, Mimi greeted him first with sulky reproof and then with a sudden outburst of temper such as he had not known half a dozen time. of temper such as he had not known half a dozen times in their married life.

But Uncle Charley was too much married about the but their married life. But Uncle Charley was too much worried about his own affairs to feel more than a passing sense of injustice at Mimi's unusual behavior.

By the end of the week Doris had left the little house in Westminster. Poor Doris! When it came to the actual parting, she nearly abandoned her resolutions. After all, it had been home to her, and Mimi and Uncle Charley olutions. After all, it had been home to her, and Mimi and Uncle Charley Drake. Dr. Ernest M. Hopkins, president of Dartmouth college, and Dr. In fact, Uncle Charley was still kind—too kind. He plainly could not Max Mason, president of the University of Chlores should want to go. "But if you think it's for the sity of Chlores and Dr. Green, a ward of Col. Edward H. R.

nderstand why Doris should want to go. "But if you think it's for the est—perhaps it is," he had said, shaking his head and running his soft, pretty closely that something of the sort had taken place. And he was wisn enough not to ask questions about things he was obviously not intended to That is why he never even commented on Mimi's absence when Doris

It was a pity—a great pity—but there it was. And secretly, Uncle Charley was not altogether sorry that Doris had pulled out from the gang in time. He had not been feeling too cheerful lately; there had been one or two spells of dizzness that had bothered him. But he kept his own counsel. No need to Doris had gone to Georgette's. Madam had two or three of the girls living in, and she had taken a fancy to this pale, blue eyed, sad looking Doris, and was glad when she had accepted her offer to find a room for her at Dover street. Georgette always took a professional interest in the welfare of her employes; but it was something more than a professional interest she had developed for Doris.

eloped for Doris.
"That Winchell girl, Matt." she had said to her husband, "there's ng queer about her. I don't think she's happy and I don't think she has bugh to eat. I'm sorry for the child. I'm going to get her to live in."

"Just as you like, my dear; just as you like," Given had replied, his mind fixed on other things. "But don't spoil her, she's shaping nicely."

And hardly knowing why she said it, Georgette had answered, "She's got too much trouble in her own life to know she's being spoiled."

"Trouble? Yes, I suppose we all have," the little man had commented

Georgette had spoken more truly than she knew when she referred

But Georgette had spoken more truly than she knew when she referred to Doris' trouble. The first few days of her life in Dover street were the most to Doris' trouble. The first few days of her life in Dover street were the most to be street of any she had known—more miserable even than those months of brutal ill treatment in the curate's home.

Doris was so lonely, so terribly lonely. From seven o'clock each evening, Doris was so lonely, so terribly lonely. From seven o'clock each evening, Doris was so lonely, so terribly lonely. From seven o'clock each evening, Doris was so lonely, so terribly lonely. From seven o'clock each evening, Doris was so lonely, so terribly lonely. From seven o'clock each evening, Doris was so lonely, so that that the days work was finished into seemed like an age. And Saturday afternoon har young ladies should be in, seemed like an age. Mushroom Cookery. Although it takes some minutes to wash, peel, and scald mushrooms, after that they lend themselves to "slight" cookery as readily as eggs, and it is nice cookery and savory if the mushms are not hardened by heat.

in its juices, therefore these must not cooked up and dried up any more than must chicken be, though this appens too often in the sauteing of ushrooms and in the frying of of making a mushroom soup it is best to clean, scaid and chop the mush-rooms, then to put them into cold milk in a double boiler with cold water un-der, set over fire and cook until the milk boils and for five minutes there-after, after which add a little sait and butter to get a delicious soup. It is superior with part cream. Use a pint of the liquid and about a pint of fresh hrooms or a cup of canned

It is a good plan to scald fresh nushrooms in salted boiling water for a minute, then to rinse them with cold water and peel, because it gives them a final and perhaps in some ises a highly necessary cleaning.

A meat gravy is fine for a finish out something like the liquid part of ome lamb stew, with a little of the meat cut fine—not through food chop-per—will finish them well and make a nice luncheon dish when served on

After peeling the mushrooms cut them in thin slices and put them in a little seasoned hot butter in the frying pan, keeping your eye strictly on them to see that when the juices cook out, and the pieces begin to look transparent, that this juice shall not cook away. Lowering the fire when necessary. If the juice seems like to be drying up add a little cream, or if the juice comes out evenly from all, cover closely and cook five minutes over the least fire. Add gravy or stew preparation, and cook five minutes.

GRIFFITH TERMS JEALOUSY CAUSE

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Nov. 12 .- [Special.]-Maj. John L. Griffith, Big Ten commissioner, told coaches of the University of Iowa, Coe, and Cornell colleges, and the local high schools, and two hundred guests of the Lions' club today that attacks on football are due to fealousy.

"The nation is better off Thanks-giving for having had another season of football," Maj. Griffith declared. "The philosophy of the gridiron and the track plays an important part in olding the philosophy of the nation. "The athlete is taught not to whine when somebody else wins. He learns to accept the blame for losing, and then turn around and try to win the next time.

Criticism that football is making too much money was labeled as "socialistic" by the commissioner.

When tobaccos are good enough to speak for themselves -let them say it!

THAT'S the one way to give men what they want in a cigarettenatural tobacco taste. Each type of tobacco should contribute one its spicy tang, one its rich aroma, one its mellow "body," one its mild sweetness; and if the quality is right and the blend is right, that's all there is to it:

Sounds easy!

But to create a blend that combines fullness with mildness; that removes heaviness while retaining "character"; that makes a cigarette that is smooth and mild yet "satisfying"-to do all this is not easy, far from it.

It is so difficult, in fact, that millions of smokers sincerely believe it has been achieved in only one blend in the world.

This blend—and they swear by it belongs to Chesterfield. It embodies the finest of Turkish and American tobaccos-and it can't be copied.

You Who Can Retire

make your home in INDRIO and add ten years to your life

HAPPIER, healthier and longer life—this is the reward of those who come to Indrio to spend their remaining years.

At Indrio $50,000 will keep you in comparative luxury for life. $10,000 of it will buy a house and lot which couldn't be duplicated for $20,000 here, and the remaining $40,000 will produce $3,200 yearly when safely invested in 8% Florida mortgage bonds. As living expenses and taxes are low in Indrio, such an income is equal to $5,000 in the North.

Where INDRIO Differs

Florida communities differ. Many of its cities are bedlams of humanity—confused, haphazard growths with little beauty-no repose. Moreover, they are very expensive.

Hence many older residents of now crowded resorts are building in newer and finer developments, in restful, artistic, economical communities such as

Indrio lies 60 miles north of Palm Beach on the Dixie Highway, the Florida East Coast Railway and the Indian River, a shimmering inlet of the Atlantic INDRIO the Beautiful

Already magnificent parks, plazas and boulevards are being laid out, while projected improvements embrace a great hotel, bathing casino, yacht harbor, golf course, bridle paths and tennis and roque courts. Nearby woods and waters provide splendid fishing and hunting.

An All-Year Community

Indrio's climate is delightfully even the year 'round. In summer cool breezes sweep in from the sea, while winter days are made balmy by the nearby Gulf Stream.

To you who are in a position to retire, what could be better than spending life's autumn in this land of eternal spring. As In-drio's more desirable lots are going fast, we strongly urge immediate investiga-tion. Sign and mail the

Corporate Building Bonds

A number of factors which help to create a natural market for this type of security

Corporate Building Bonds have shown a record of very limited fluctuation in market value. In case the investor wishes to dispose of them, the following factors help to create an active market:

- 1. The issues are large and are widely distributed by banks and investment houses to all types of
- 2. The same established system for distribution is employed as for other large corporation issues.
- 3. The properties which secure the issues are well-known buildings in our larger cities-buildings, which because of their advantageous locations, are constantly increasing in value with the increase in population.
- 4. A sinking fund operates to absorb any excess of securities on the market and helps to maintain the price of the bonds.
- 5. They are corporation bonds, protected by the same safeguards and marketed in the same manner as other corporation securities.
- 6. They appeal to large numbers of investors, which fact, in itself, creates an ever widening demand.

Corporate Building Bonds combine safety, a satisfactory return on the investment and that degree of marketability which can be expected of high grade corporation issues.

The Goose with the Golden Eggs

One day a Countryman going to the nest of his Goose found there an egg all yellow and glittering. He took it home and found to his delight that it was an egg of pure gold. Every morning the same thing occurred, and he soon became rich by selling his eggs. As he grew rich he grew greedy; and thinking to get at once all the gold the Goose could give, he killed it and opened it only to find -nothing.

Experienced Management

The properties in the Associated system are operated by men all of whom have been successfully engaged for many years in the various phases of public utility business. The properties have been operated in conjunction with the J. G. White Management Corporation, which is one of the oldest and most widely known organizations engaged in the supervision of public utilities.

Some of the Associated properties were built by the present management more than 20 years ago. Under their supervision the properties have steadily increased in the number of customers and in earn-

Varying versions of trade depression perhaps makes it impossible to judge at this time, as results might have been happier if trade had been better. It is significant, however.

FORBES answers the question!

Read his own opinion and what other authorities have told him-in the November 15th issue of Forbes Magazine

Wall Street, through the sensational activity of the stock market, finds itself as much in the investment limelight as Florida. What is behind these important stock manipulations? How much higher will stocks soar—and when will they settle down?

Mr. Forbes' interviews with Charles E. Mitchell, President of the National City Bank, John McHugh, President, Mechanics and Metals Bank, and many others in position to know, convey many valuable predictions. Their opinions are particularly important now in view of the boiling markets and should be read by every investor and business man.

Another big article in this issue is, "What Burst Stock Booms of Other Years!"—by Alexander Dana Noyes, Financial Editor, New York Times.

What was the particular cause or incident which put an end to the other great "bull markets" on the New York Stock Exchange in the generation past? The answer is apparent from known incidents of the days when those older speculative manias terminated. Mr. Noyes' article covers this subject completely.

SELL TOURS TO FLORIDA. 10 SPECIAL SALES LECTURES SHOW YOU HOW.

Thousands of people will go to Florida between now and April. You can make excellent money, whole or part time, selling these de luxe tours.

Come to this remarkable, instructive, inspiring series of talks, twice each day, Nov. 16 to 20, inclusive,

AT 9 A. M. Hear the master principles of salesmanship made plain and clear by a man who has an enviable record in training successful saleemen. H. L. FOGELMAN, Sales Counselor. Hollywood-by-the-Sea. Every man or woman who sells or wants to sell will come away from these meetings with new powers of salesmanship.

AT 2 P. M. you are given the specific selling features of this alluring tour.

You are shown the attractions of this special all-Pullman trip to Florida's romantic East Coast-vou see the plans. which include visits to Palm Beach, Miami, and Hollywood-by-the-Sea. You get an insight into miraculous yet sound & conservative growth of Hollywood-by-the-Sea.

Here are a few facts which give you a faint indication of the many you will learn at these meetings.

Hollywood, today, has a permanent population of 7,500, as shown by the electric light connections.

It is a city of beautiful homes and boulevards. hotels, and business properties.

811 school children registered on the opening day of school. There are 100 miles of boulevards and 55 miles of inland waterways. This city is located right on the shore of the Atlantic Ocean, with eight miles of gleaming beaches and four miles of board walk-one of the most brilliant play spots of the nation.

You can offer to prospective tourists the hospitality of Hollywoodthe freedom of its beaches, golf courses, country club, and $250,-000 bathing casino-a complete tour, including living accommodations and meals, railway fare, and Pullman berth-all for $150. This is the famous tour already extensively advertised in leading newspapers, and this advertising makes selling easy for you. Come early. These remarkable lectures are LIMITED TO 100-

that is our seating capacity. This opportunity is limited to those who can give the finest character references and whose past record will bear the strictest investigation, Experience is not as important as excellent character and a serious desire to learn and use the principles of making money by salesmanship. Remember, these meetings start promptly at 9 a. m. and 2 p. m. Come early and make sure of a place for yourself with an opportunity for greater earnings and success.
